VIEW TRIP NOTES

Day 1 - Hanoi arrival. Embrace the charms of Vietnam's capital

Upon your arrival at Noi Bai Airport, our driver or tour guide will be there to warmly welcome you. You'll be whisked away to a centrally located hotel where you can settle in and relish a welcome meal, be it lunch or dinner.

Hanoi, a city harmoniously blending tradition and modernity, stands as a serene capital with a profound history and distinctive architecture. Formerly known as Thang Long, it earned the moniker "City of the Rising Dragon" and has been Vietnam's official capital since 1954. Hanoi boasts ancient pagodas, top-notch museums, and an array of delectable street foods.

Meal provider: Welcome lunch or dinner

Accommodation: Hotel 3* in Hanoi

Embark on a leisurely stroll through the vibrant streets of the Old Quarter, where 36 narrow streets bear the names of various crafts and specialties of the city's artisans: Hang Giay, Hang Gai, Hang Thung, and more. Continue your journey to the iconic Hoan Kiem Lake, a symbol of the city's spiritual heart, and pay a visit to the picturesque Ngoc Son Temple. Take a moment to relax at a local café, sipping on a cup of coffee while immersing yourself in the lively Hanoian way of life amidst the bustling traffic.

Free time Add-ons

- Cyclo trip around the Old Quarter

For a unique experience suitable for families and children, hop on traditional rickshaws. The cyclo ride takes you through the Old Quarter's streets at a leisurely pace, allowing you to witness the city's inner charm, the Old and French Quarters, and the tranquil lake. It's a delightful way to soak in the routine life of the locals amidst the vibrant cityscape.

Day 2 - Uncover the treasures of the city

Meal provided: Breakfast
Accommodation: Hotel 3* in Hanoi

Included Experiences

- Explore the historic Temple of Literature, the stately Presidential Palace, the elegant Hanoi Opera House, and the notable Maison Centrale.
- Visit the ancient and iconic One Pillar Pagoda, as well as the tranquil Tran Quoc Buddhist and Taoist temples.

Morning Time: Embark on a half-day hop-on-hop-off bus tour in downtown Hanoi, starting from Frog Garden and spanning key landmarks such as the Military History Museum, Imperial Citadel of Thang Long, Quan Thanh Temple, Tran Quoc Pagoda, Ho Chi Minh Mausoleum Complex, the French-built Presidential Palace, Ho Chi Minh's House of Stilts, the iconic One Pillar Pagoda, Temple of Literature (Vietnam's oldest university), Hoa Lo Prison (Maison Centrale), Hanoi Cathedral, and the elegant Hanoi Opera House.

Included Experiences

- Embark on a guided tour through vibrant local markets, where the bustling atmosphere and diverse array of street foods will tantalize your senses.
- Witness the magic of a thousand-year-old tradition with a unique Water Puppet Show, a mesmerizing performance that brings Vietnamese folklore to life in a captivating aquatic display.

Afternoon Time: Dive into the rich tapestry of Vietnam's ethnic groups at the Museum of Ethnology, where diverse artistic pieces from the country's northern hill tribes are on display. Return to the lively Old Quarter for another exploration of this bustling commercial center. A guided walk through the local market will expose you to a vibrant array of fresh fruits, herbs, flowers, meat, fish, and even frog. Indulge your taste buds with samples of fresh spring rolls, fried tofu, small pancakes, or the delightful 'bun cha,' a dish featuring noodles and grilled pork.

Evening Time: Sit back and be captivated by a unique Water Puppetry performance, a tradition dating back to the 11th century in the Red River Delta. The theater utilizes water as its stage, with intricately controlled puppets moving gracefully across the water's surface. Behind a bamboo screen, skilled actors bring to life the fascinating and longstanding spiritual tales of Vietnamese farmers, creating an enchanting spectacle that spans a thousand years of cultural heritage.

Embark on a delightful journey after breakfast as we head straight to the time-honored Bat Trang ceramic village. Nestled in the rural countryside on the left bank of the Hong River, approximately 15 km east of Hanoi in Gia Lam District, this village stands as the epitome of Vietnam's renowned pottery tradition. With a history spanning centuries, Bat Trang is celebrated as the most famous and enduring pottery village in the country.

Day 3 – Hanoi and its Outskirts. Explore the surrounding beauty

Meal provided:

Breakfast

Included Experiences

- Journey to the centuries-old Bat Trang ceramic village

Accommodation:

Hotel 3* in Hanoi

As you step into this charming village, you'll be transported to a bygone era, feeling the nostalgia embedded in the local artworks that showcase the rich cultural heritage. Dive into the creative process as you engage in crafting your own pottery, be it a pot or any ceramic masterpiece. This hands-on experience not only allows you to connect with the artisanal traditions of Bat Trang but also provides you with the opportunity to bring home a personalized souvenir, a tangible memory of your time in this historic village.

Day 4 – Drive to Halong Bay. Sail into mythical seascapes and breathtaking karsts

Embark on a scenic morning drive to Halong Bay, a captivating journey covering 160 km over approximately 2.5 hours. This expansive bay on the northern coast boasts thousands of limestone islands that gracefully pierce the sky, creating a surreal and breathtaking landscape. Only a handful of these islands are settled or inhabited, allowing for a serene and untouched natural environment. The sails of junks and sampans gracefully glide across the clear emerald waters, forming a magnificent scene that has earned Ha Long Bay its UNESCO World Heritage Site status

Your family will board an overnight cruise, setting the stage for an immersive experience amid the stunning beauty of Halong Bay. As you traverse the bay, marvel at the thousands of limestone islands, each adorned with caves of various shapes and sizes. The cruise offers a plethora of activities to choose from, including kayaking, swimming, exploring floating villages and markets, engaging in cooking classes, and trying your hand at squid fishing. The journey includes stops at notable islets such as Cho Da, Trong Mai, and the mesmerizing Luon Cave.

Indulge in a relaxing evening on board, perhaps opting for a spa treatment (available at an optional fee) to unwind further. Before enjoying a delectable set dinner, immerse yourself in a local cookery and food demonstration, offering insights into the culinary delights of the region. As the day comes to a close, savor the tranquility of Halong Bay under the night sky, creating a perfect end to your unforgettable day.

Included Experiences

- Overnight Halong Bay luxury cruise and karst-formation cave exploration
- Join an interactive cooking class on board

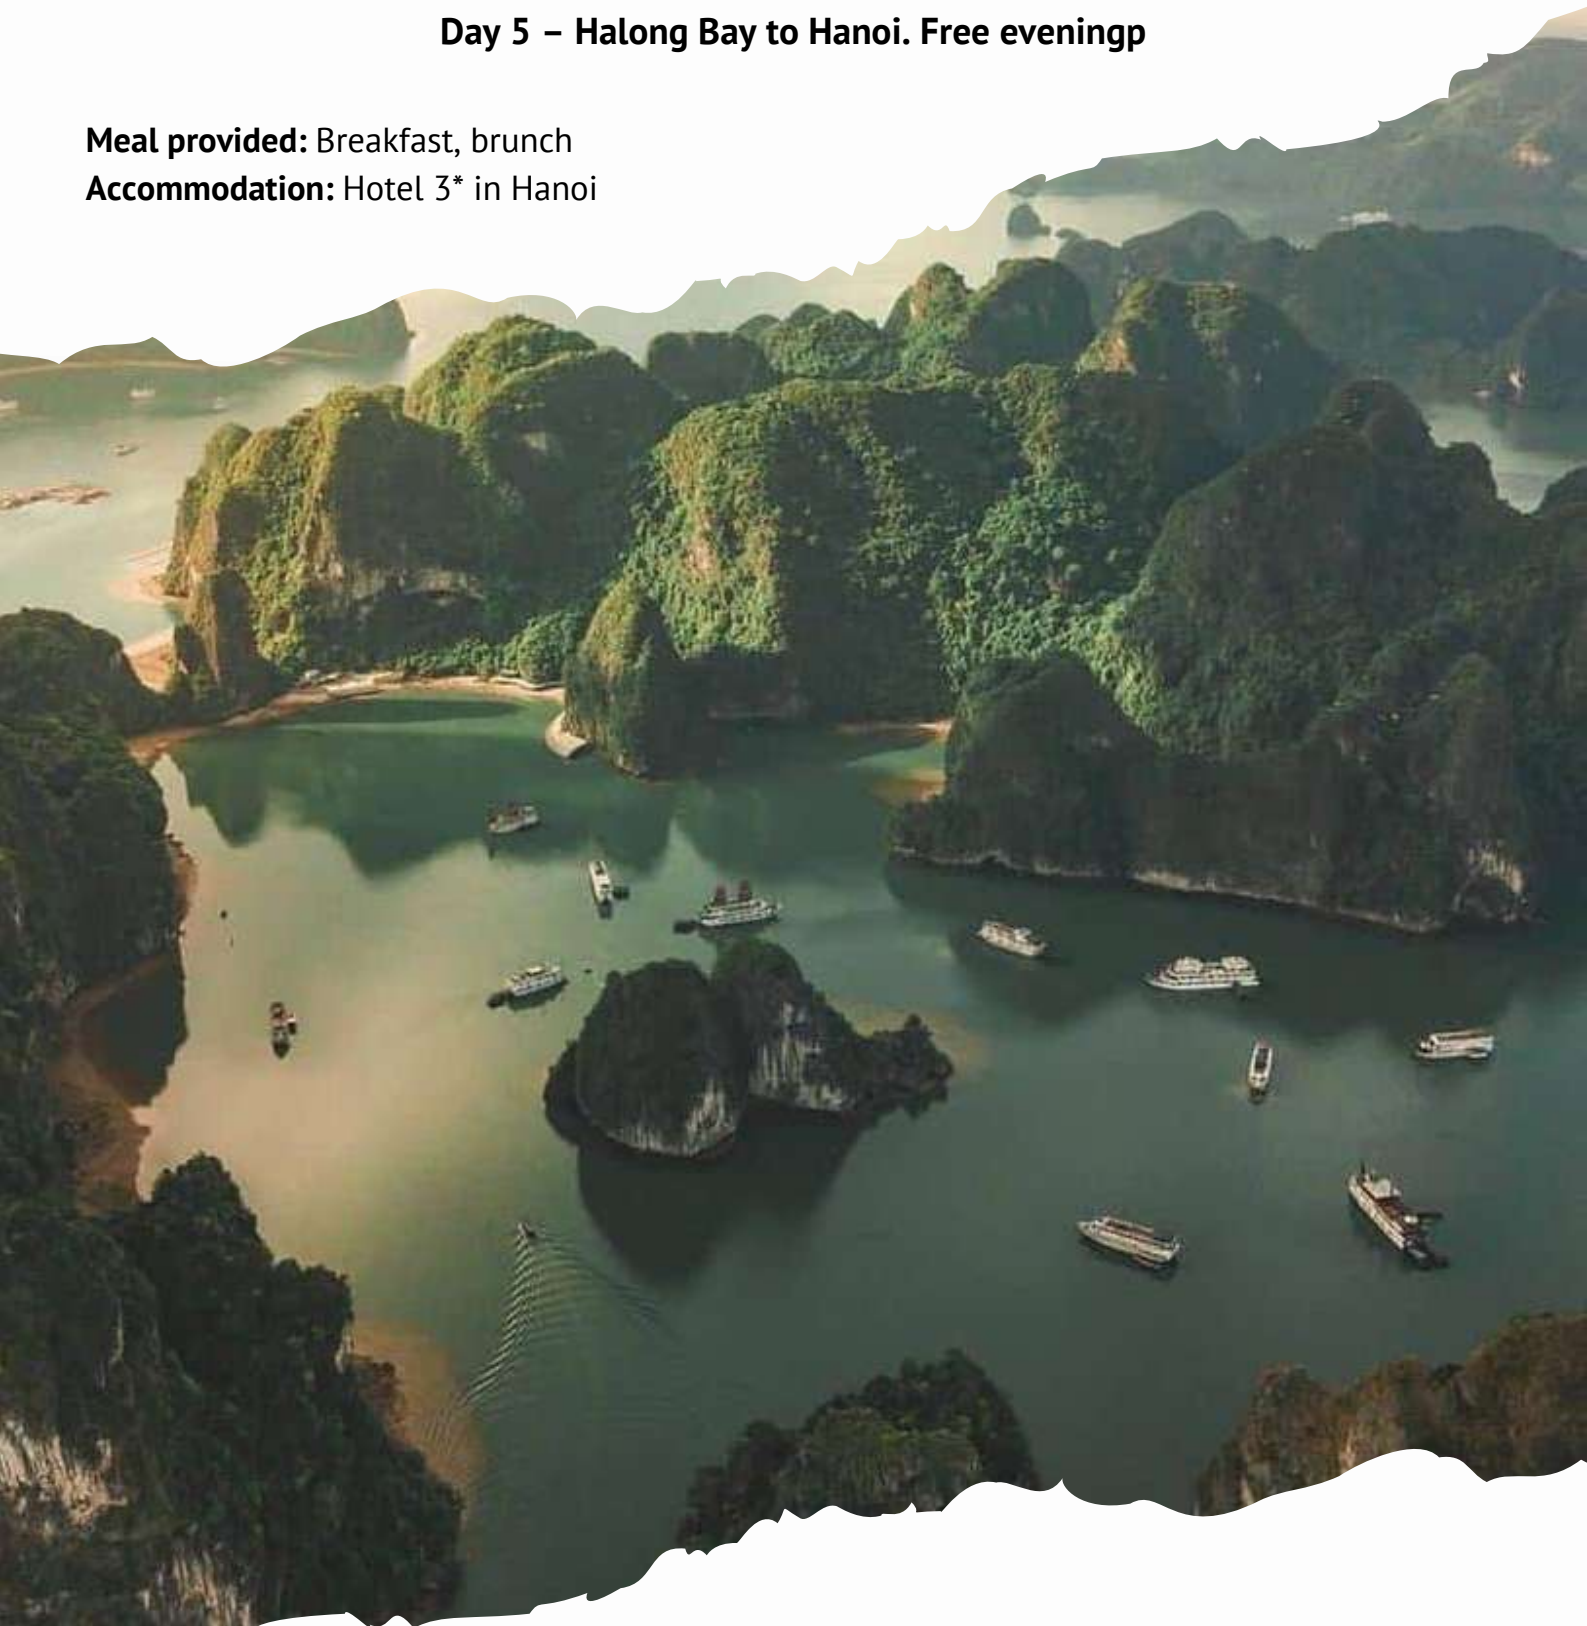

Meal provided: Breakfast, lunch, dinner

Accommodation: Vessel 4* in Halong Bay

Day 5 – Halong Bay to Hanoi. Free eveningp

Meal provided: Breakfast, brunch

Accommodation: Hotel 3* in Hanoi

Awaken to the enchanting spectacle of the sunrise from the comfort of your cabin, heralding the start of a new day in Halong Bay. After indulging in a soft breakfast served in the cruise's restaurant, embark on your final water excursion—a captivating journey to explore the hidden grottoes nestled beneath towering cliffs. Your family members will climb into the heart of the cave, where a magnificent palace-like structure adorned with stalactite beauty has taken shape over millions of years. This awe-inspiring experience provides a fitting conclusion to your exploration of Halong Bay's natural wonders.

Following the cave exploration, gather for a farewell brunch as the cruise makes its way back to the mainland. Bid adieu to the tranquil beauty of Halong Bay, carrying with you the memories of this unique and breathtaking adventure.

As you drive back to Hanoi, enjoy free time with your family in the evening.

Day 6 – Fly to Danang and drive to Hoi An. Step into an ancient town adorned with colorful cloth lanterns

Embark on a short flight with your family to Danang, followed by a picturesque drive to the enchanting town of Hoi An. This well-preserved gem stands as a captivating example of a Southeast Asian trading port from the 15th century, offering a tapestry of ancient treasures, historic houses, gourmet delights, vibrant markets, grand halls, natural wonders, pagodas, tailor shops, traditional crafts, fishing villages, vegetable gardens, and pristine beaches.

Start a short walking tour of Hoi An, where highlights include the Assembly Hall of the Fujian Assembly, a 16th-century Vietnamese-built Buddhist temple, the Old House of Phung Hung, a 400-year-old Japanese covered bridge, and a lively riverside market.

As the evening descends, Hoi An's Old Town transforms into a pedestrian haven, inviting visitors to stroll the charming streets, peruse souvenirs, and marvel at the brilliance of lanterns that illuminate the surroundings. Experience the magic of a sunset boat ride, don a custom-tailored suit, pedal through the picturesque countryside, and explore the night market for a truly immersive and unforgettable Hoi An evening.

Meal provided: Breakfast
